

2018 EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIPS

RULES AND REGULATIONS

I. OBJECTIVE

This scholarship has been exclusively created for educational purposes:

- To encourage higher professional training in the commercial real estate industry.
- To encourage professional training in business or real estate organizations approved by the CID Scholarship Committee.
- To encourage higher professional training at academic institutions that promotes real estate education.
- To encourage, develop and facilitate other real estate related research, publications, programs or activities, by a public or private entity, such as CCIM, a real estate degree from UNO, SIOR or any real estate designation or academic real estate course.

II. THE SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

- The Award of the Scholarship shall be on an annual basis. The CID Scholarship committee shall grant the sum of $1,500 each to three (3) recipients. Previous recipients are ineligible.
- The 2018 Award can be used any time between November 2018 and the end of 2020. CID membership must be maintained.
- The Awards shall be announced and funded at the Election & Holiday Social to be held on November 15th.

III. SCHOLARSHIP AWARD APPLICATION

- Applicants must be a REALTOR® member of CID.
- Applicants must include a typed description of their objective for the use of the funds, why the applicant should receive the award, when the award would need to be funded, and to who or what organization the funds would be made payable.
- All applications must be received by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, October 19, 2018.
- The CID Scholarship Committee members shall meet thereafter to review the applications and choose the best candidate for the scholarship.
- CID Board members and Scholarship Committee members are ineligible.