Legal Hotline Question* (If needed, please attach additional pages):

As a broker and a member of the Louisiana Association of REALTORS®, I _____, agree that I have read and understood the explanation of the Legal Hotline purpose and operation. I understand that the Legal Hotline is intended to keep the Association abreast of legal developments and concerns involving real estate brokerage and sales.

I understand and agree that the Louisiana Association of REALTORS® assumes no actual or implied responsibility for any improper use or misuse of responses to questions through this service. I also understand and agree that I may not convey, represent or imply to others, including, without limitations, clients, customers or other licensees that information obtained through this service is legal advice rendered by or on behalf of the Louisiana Association of REALTORS®. I also understand that the Legal Hotline attorney will provide periodic summaries of the Legal Hotline inquiries, without attribution to any person(s) for educational purposes of the Louisiana Association of REALTORS® and that my questions may appear in LAR publications.

I understand that the Legal Hotline provides legal information, not legal representation. LAR's attorneys will not represent any party (neither you, your firm, your clients or customers) in any proceeding or transaction. Your firm's attorney should continue to be an important part of your business, and you should encourage your clients to seek legal counsel as appropriate.
